

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

ANTONIO JULIUS BRADLEY, SR,

Plaintiff,

v.

BRANDON MIRES, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. C22-5806-JHC-SKV

ORDER

This 42 U.S.C. § 1983 matter was stayed by order of the Court on March 24, 2023, to allow the underlying criminal proceedings to run their course while preventing Plaintiff's claims from extinguishing under the applicable statute of limitations. See Dkt. 17. Plaintiff, proceeding pro se, has filed a motion to lift that stay. Dkt. 39. In his motion, Plaintiff confirms that his criminal case has concluded and he is being transferred to the Washington Corrections Center (WCC) in Shelton, Washington.<sup>1</sup> Id. at 1.

---

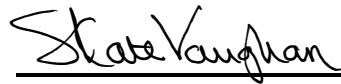

<sup>1</sup> The Court acknowledges Plaintiff's concern regarding his ability to file or respond to activity on the docket while he is in receiving at WCC. See Dkt. 39 at 3-4. Given that there are no deadlines currently pending for Plaintiff, however, his concern is premature. If Plaintiff's ability to meet any future deadlines is impacted by his inability to file or access legal materials, the Court will take such limitations into consideration.

1 The Court, being fully informed, hereby ORDERS:

2 1) Plaintiff's request to lift the stay, Dkt. 39, is GRANTED. The stay in this matter
3 is lifted and Defendants shall have sixty (60) days from the date of this Order to respond to 4 Plaintiff's complaint by filing an answer or a Rule 12 motion.

5 2) The Clerk is directed to send copies of this order to the parties and to the 6 Honorable John H. Chun.

7 Dated this 21st day of February, 2025.
